

Are you and your students looking for adventure to spark learning?

Our Education Programs outline the learning outcomes from their experience at TreeClimb, as well as relevant pre-climb and post-climb lesson plans and activities developed in collaboration with ACHPER SA (The Australian Council for Health, Physical Education and Recreation South Australian Branch Incorporated) to align with Australian Curriculum.

Today children and young people are growing up in a risk averse society. We provide a unique context for the development of effective learning outside the classroom that will assist your students to develop a range of pro-social behaviours, problem-solving, collaboration and interpersonal skills all based on principles of respect, effort, helping others and becoming a self-directed learner.

Our programs will address general capabilities including; Critical and Creative Thinking. Focus Areas in the Australian Curriculum are:

Health & physical education

Relationships and sexuality

Safety

Active play & minor games

Challenge & adventure activities

Fundamental movement skills

Lifelong physical activities

Come and climb to new heights and allow your children and young people to bring out their brave with up to 2-hours of hosted climbing and applying our (year specific) dynamic lesson plans to enhance the learning outcomes and experience for Years 1-10.

These programs are especially powerful for schools that are seeking a safe framework and environment. School groups may be booked without using our lesson plans, but it is strongly recommended to get the most out of the experience. Sessions for up to 15 climbers can be booked directly online or through our booking coordinators by phone or email.

"We had our whole school excursion to Tree Climb! What a great day was had by all, with everyone taking on new challenges and testing out their growth mindset and persistence. Even some staff had to face some challenges with great support from students. We were really impressed by everyone's support for one another and everyone's commitment to take on their own challenges. Well done everyone on a great day of learning and fun!"
